

CURRENT VACANCY

To strengthen our experienced and highly knowledgeable consulting team, we are looking for an

Agile Business Coach

Your Motivation:

Digitisation is changing almost everything in interaction and communication that was once familiar to large organisations and authorities: eye level, speed, and technologies.

What remains constant, however, is the desire of people to have their personal needs be recognised and taken seriously by brands.

You accompany and help our clients transition to the digital age, with a fine sense for trends and people thanks to your curiosity and technical as well as management skills.

Your Tasks:

- Conception and independent implementation of agile projects, in collaboration with the account team (account manager, project manager, and technical experts) – at process level with the aim of learning and anticipating the contents
- The projects (available at <https://www.ambuzzador.com/work/digitale-transformation/>) cover, amongst others, the following areas:
  - Strategic consulting and operational support in the development of new, digital business models and market launches
  - Independent and proactive prototyping with new technologies, such as chatbots
  - Conception, implementation and moderation of innovation labs, using, inter alia, agile methods (Agile Leadership, Scrum, and Design Thinking)
  - Development and support of digital executive programmes for leading personalities
  - Conception and implementation of internal communication tools based on social media (keyword: the new way of working)
  - Having previous experience in at least one of the areas would be an added advantage.
- Conceptual and methodological planning and achieving the goals of your projects, using agile methods (among other things, Scrum and Design Thinking)
- Relationship management with the specialised departments concerned of the client
- Public presentation of your activities: blogging on the ambuzzador website, lectures and trainings
- Continuous development of your topics as Agile Business Coach

Your Profile:

We are searching for a responsible, creative and visionary Agile Business Coach who is strongly dedicated and committed to our vision, the team and our clients:

- You are experienced in designing, managing and implementing digital projects in one of the following areas: product development, customer service, e-business, digital marketing, data science, innovation, business development or change management – as a consultant, facilitator or executive at senior management level.
- You have successfully completed your university studies, have basic technological understanding of digital media and more than five years of professional experience in your field, in collaboration with teams that you have actively guided and managed.
- You have more than four years of experience in the application of digital media or technologies in your field, from which result your assertiveness and passion for professional coaching in the context of digital transformation.
- In recent years, you have demonstrably continued your training in one of the following areas: change management, leadership, alternative forms of organisation, agile or digital transformation.
- As part of the team, you naturally bring your know-how and your experience to the table and recognise and promote strengths.
- Transparent planning and documentation of your tasks (e.g. with Jira and Confluence) is for you an integral part of successful teamwork.
- You are familiar with the dynamics and rules of large organisations.
- You know how to prepare and present the results of your agendas relevant to the target groups concerned.

We offer:

- A permanent employment of 40 hours per week in an experienced, dynamic team
- Challenging and responsible work for leading national and international companies
- Further education and networking at selected national and international conferences
- Agile organisation and office space
- Invitation to vegetarian lunch freshly prepared every day by our chef
- Gross monthly salary: € 3,000 to 4,500 (depending on qualifications and experience)

That's how you want to operate? If so, we are looking forward to your application to
